ATLAS-APEX ROOFING INC. TAKES THE NEXT BIG STEP IN THEIR NATIONAL EXPANSION PLAN

With the addition of 3 new branches strategically located in key markets across the country, they are well positioned to elevate their national service offering to the next level.

Atlas-Apex Roofing Inc., a wholly-owned subsidiary of The Atlas-Apex Roofing Group of Companies, is proud to announce another major growth milestone, with their recent expansion into the Saskatchewan, British Columbia, and Newfoundland markets. With the acquisition of L&B Roofing Ltd. in Regina and Coast Hudson Ltd. in Vancouver, two well-established and highly respected local roofing firms, Atlas-Apex is now firmly positioned in central Canada as well as the West coast. Their new branch in St. John's Newfoundland completes this phase of expansion, and further solidifies their position as the premier provider of roofing, waterproofing, and sheet metal contracting services from coast to coast.

This expansion, a mere 2 years after their highly successful launch into the US market with branches in Florida, Mississippi, and New York, will position Atlas-Apex in key hubs across the country -further elevating the high level of service and rapid response times their clients have come to expect. Always on the forefront of technology, Atlas-Apex also utilizes the latest technological tools available to maximize efficiencies throughout their operations, as well as to ensure timely and accurate communications with their customers. Combined with the most knowledgeable and experienced personnel, they have created a solid foundation that is fully scalable, allowing the continued growth of the company while ensuring seamless service to its valued customers.

Established in 1928, and as a founding member of the OIRCA in 1964, Atlas-Apex Roofing Inc. has grown from a small local roofing company operating in the Toronto area, to one of the largest roofing contractors in Canada. With their corporate head office in Toronto, and an established satellite branch in Kitchener, they have been providing their customers in the industrial, commercial, and institutional (ICI) markets with the highest level of service and expertise for over 85 years.
